

HOPE OUT LOUD 7

PEACE AND MUSIC FESTIVAL

music. poetry. kids activities. speakers. rally. fun for everyone.

SUNDAY. SEPTEMBER 14TH
Noon-6 pm • FREE!

BUSHNELL PARK, HARTFORD, east side of park

Performances by Mental Notes, Hartbeat Ensemble
Sunrise Steel Band, Eric Paradine & River Road,
Jean Luis avec Bon Amis. MCs MIRA & Mind Evolution
Open Mic coffeehouse hosted by Fortune's Gale

Plus poetry, speakers, kids activities. and lots of fun. Spend the afternoon.
Bring a picnic. It's a concert, rally, playground, remembrance,
a day of inspiration for renewal and commitment.

Hope Out Loud is a sober event.

In case of rain HOL7 will be held at Union Station, One Union Place

Organizing Sponsors:

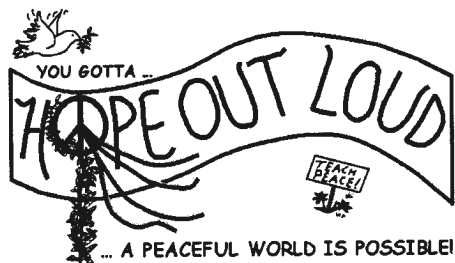

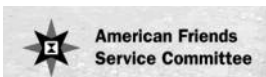

The Connecticut Coalition for Peace & Justice (CCPJ)

The American Friends Service Committee (AFSC)

CT Transadvocacy Coalition, People of Faith Network, Charter Oak Cultural Center

Sponsors: True Colors, Inc., CT Valley Atheists, Bright Star Vision,
West Hartford Citizen's for Peace & Justice

Supported in part by the Greater Hartford Arts Council and the City of Hartford

Hope Out Loud Mission

Utilizing the Arts Community's longstanding involvement in social change movements, Hope Out Loud's mission is to promote a shared vision of peaceful co-existence within our communities and our world through non-violent conflict resolution, social justice and economic equity with sustainable environmental co-habitation.

For more information call 860.523.4823 or visit www.hopeoutloud.org