

CONSENT DENIED LETTER

Dear Parent/Guardian:

The federal No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 requires that each school district that receives federal funds must provide to military recruiters or institutions of higher education, the name, address and telephone number of high school junior and senior students. This information is given upon request unless a parent or guardian indicates that their child's information not be shared.

Please indicate in the section below, if you do not wish to share contact information with a military recruiter or institution of higher education.

Please return this letter to your child's guidance counselor.

- I do not wish to have contact information for my child,
