

H I
B
A K
U S
H
A

Hibakusha

are coming to Connecticut

MEET WITH JAPANESE SURVIVORS OF THE ATOMIC BOMB ATTACKS OF 1945

Hibakusha: the term widely used in Japan referring to victims of the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. The Japanese word translates literally to "explosion-affected people." (Wikipedia)

Saturday, September 29, 2007

1:00 P.M. Quaker Meeting House 144 South Quaker Lane West Hartford, CT	4:00 P.M. First Church of Christ Intersection of Route 89 and Route 195 Mansfield, CT
---	--

Why You Should Attend:

- As the Presidential candidates discuss the nuclear option against the people of Iran
- As the Bush Administration pushes for a new generation of nuclear weapons
- As U.S. and Russian nuclear missiles continue to be on hair trigger alert
- Is the world forgetting the lessons of Hiroshima and Nagasaki?

Meet with Japanese survivors of the Atomic bomb attacks of 1945. These atomic bomb survivors, called Hibakusha in Japan, will talk about what it is to survive the most horrific weapon developed to be used in warfare.

For more information:

Call Joe Wasserman at (860) 561-1897
or visit:

www.HopeOutloud.org

Sponsored by:

The American Friends Service Committee
No Nukes/No War
Connecticut Coalition for Peace and Justice (CCPJ)